SHARGE OF FALSE PERTENOPS AGAINST A BUFFALO MERCHANT.

On Saturdey night officer Lord, of the Lower Police court, arrived in this city from Buffalo, having in custody one Alanson flovey, a merchant, doing business in that city, who stands charged with having obtained in that city, who stands charged with having obtained possession of $1,213.25 worth of furniture ware from Wentworth & Degraaf, No. 460 Pearl street, by false presences. The complainants state that in January last Hevey applied to them for the above quantity of furniture, and that he wanted it for the purpose of furnishing his sister's dwelling house; also that he was one of the members of the firm of Hill & Hovey; that the former was worth at least $100,000, and that there could be no deabt whatever as to the payment of his individual note at four months date, that he offered them in exchange for the goods. Upon these representations the furniture was eleivered over to the accused. Since the delivery of the goods, Mr. Degraaf received a letter from the accused, who stated that as business had went on badly gince he was last in the city, advised the firm in this city to look to Hovey & Hill for the payment of the mote, and not to Howsy alone, as he was unable to take it up. Notwithstanding this arrangement, Messrs. Wentworth & Degraaf made a complaint against Hovey, for swindling, before Justice Bogart, who, issuing a warrant for his arrest, was taken in custody, as stated before. It is also alleged against Hovey that he obtained $1,488 worth of goods in a similar manner from 8. Whitney, when and segar merchant, No. 36 Broadway, and that when the accused got the goods to Buffalo, he there see them up at auction, and poptieted the proceeds. The accused was conveyed to prison to await an exam nation on the charge preferred against him. Hill, the alleged partner of Hovey, could not be found, and many are of the opinion that he exists only in name.

CHARGE OF RECKLESS FILOTING.

CHARGE OF RECKLESS PILOTING. nith, one of the pilots on the Fulton ferry, was prested yesterday by officer Simonds, of the Second ward police, charged with having recklessly and wilfully run the 're'y boat Opprey into the Williamsburg ferry boat 'salasks' to the great canger of the lives of the great canger of the lives of the great canger on the latter boat. Suith was taken before Tastice Oaborne, who allowed him to depart on his own recognizance, to answer the charge preferred against him. The investigation will take place to-day at the Mayer's office. The accused denies the charge most attenuously.

CAUGHT IN THE ACT. On Saturday afternoon Mr. Edward Miller, of No. 91 Elm street, discovered a man in his wine cellar at the above place, very quietly helping himself to a quantity of brandy that he was drawing out of a cask, and amptying into demijohns, brought there for the purpose.
Mr. Miller quietly stole cown to the door, and just as the impudent fellow was about to make his exit with a demijohn in each hand, he shut and locked the door, trapping the fellow in beautiful style. Capt. Dowling, of the Sixth ward police, coming along at this time, he opened the cellar door and took the prisoner into austody. He was conveyed before Justice Osborne, whe fully committed him for trial on charge of burglary.

Edward Linnihan was arrested by Lieut. Dalton, of the First ward police, charged with having stolen thirty pieces of linen, valued at $69, the property of Wilmerding & Co., auctioneers, Nos. $4 and $6 Broad street. It appears from the complaint that the accused was employed as a porter in the above concern; that he removed the property to a store in William street, and from this place it was removed by an accomplise of Linnihan's to his own residence, in Washington street. The police tracing the property from one place to the other, at last succeeded in recovering it in the house of an acquaintance of the prisoner, whither it had been removed by his wife, on her learning that the police were searching for it. Two men named Peniergast and Scielly, to spelher with the wise of the accused, were arrested as accessories to the larceny. All the parties were committed for examination by Justice Connolly, or the Lower Police Court.

YOUTHFUL BELLIGERENTS-THE KNIFE AGAIN. A fight occurred on Saturday afternoon between ber of boys varying from 12 to 19 years of age, at the foot of Hammond street, in which one of the foot of Hammond street, in which one of them named Peter Goodhardt, received a dangerous stab in the right arm, severing the principal artery and causing the blood to flow rapidly. Those who were engaged in the fight, seeing the condition of the wounded lad, all seamed off, thinking that he was going to bleed to death. Goodhardt was picked up by some of his friends and conveyed to his home, No. 737 Greenwich street, where he was attended by a doctor, who pronounced the wound highly dangerous. A lad named William Green was arrested by officer De Clarke, of the Ninth ward police, on charge of having inflicted the wound upon Goodhardt. He was taken before Justice Davison, at the Jefferson Market Folice Court, who committed him to prison for examination. to prison for examination.

ALLEGED CARELESS BLASTING. Sergeant Green of the Nineteenth ward police, arrested three men on Saturday last, named Michael Riley, ed three men on Saturday last, named Michael Riley. Thomas Kinnard, and James Riley, charged with carelessly blasting rocks in the upper part of the city, in violation of a corporation ordinance in relation to the man ner in which the work may be performed. The accused were arrested on the complaint of M. C. Smith, whe states that the accused, as workmen, are in the habit or blassing rocks without covering the same properly with planks, &c. The accused were taken before Justice Davison, at the Second district police court, who held them to bail each in the sum of $300 to answer.

Acute or galloping consumption.

Petrile consumption of childhood.

Latent consumption of childhood.

Latent consumption form of consumption, generally begins with a slight dry cough. It was probably the frequency of cough preceding the disease that led the ancelents to believe that cough was the cause rather than the effect of consumption. This couch mas continue for several months to be consumption. This couch mas continue for several months the rather a "back". Now, the cause of this slight cough is the presence of tubercles in the lungs; and if the patient were to die suddenly of any other disease, or from an injury, we should find the lungs filled with fine tubercles. It is common, on examination after death, to find the lungs of persons dying of fevers and inflammations, stuffed with tubercles, and this, too, when in leath, the existence of consumption had not even been suspected. Many of those friends with whom we are in daily intercourse, and whom we regard as really healthy, are thus carrying about in their lungs the elements of their own destruction.

Consumption begins differently in different cases. A man, are complicated to their own destruction.
